Mendocino County Counsel Resigns

Mendocino County Board of Supervisors Chair John Pinches today announced that County Counsel Thomas R. Parker will resign from his position effective April 10, 2014.

In his letter of resignation Mr. Parker wrote "It is with regret that I am resigning from my position as County Counsel due to personal reasons. I will be taking early retirement from Mendocino County as well. I want to thank all those who have worked and supported me during my tenure here."

According to Chair Pinches, "On behalf of the Mendocino County Board of Supervisors, we wish Mr. Parker the very best in his retirement."
