BOARD OF SUPERVISORS APPOINTS KATHARINE L. ELLIOTT AS COUNTY COUNSEL FOR MENDOCINO COUNTY

Dan Gjerde, Chair, Mendocino County Board of Supervisors announced that the Board of Supervisors has unanimously appointed Acting County Counsel, Katharine L. Elliott, as County Counsel. The appointment was made on March 15, 2016, with the Board approving the Employment Agreement on April 5, 2016.

Chair Gjerde, representing the 4th District, commented on the Board's action stating, "Ms. Elliott is actively involved in the local community, and her dedication to this community is reflected in her work as County Counsel."

Ms. Elliott has over 27 years of legal experience, including private and public sector work. In addition to serving as a Deputy County Counsel in Mendocino County, she served as Deputy Public Defender in Tulare County for 10 years, Assistant Public Defender in Mendocino County for four years, and had a private law practice for 13 years in which she handled both criminal and civil cases, dependency and juvenile matters, and state and federal matters.

Ms. Elliott graduated from Santa Barbara College of Law and resides in Redwood Valley, CA.
