Appointment of Terry N. Gross as Mendocino County's Interim County Counsel

Mendocino County Chief Executive Officer Carmel J. Angelo announced today that the Board of Supervisors has unanimously appointed Deputy County Counsel, Terry N. Gross, as Interim County Counsel. The appointment was made on July 10, 2012.

Ms. Gross brings over 20 years of legal experience to her new role, including private and public sector work. She has been a Deputy County Counsel in Mendocino County for six years, currently handling a variety of cases in both the superior and the appellate courts. "The County Counsel's office has always worked hard to provide the County and the Board of Supervisors with the best legal advice possible. We have a great group of public lawyers and staff." Gross said. "I look forward to continuing to provide our clients with the best legal services available."

Prior to her employment with Mendocino County, Ms. Gross spent ten years at a Bay Area law firm, Kazan, McClain, Abrams, et. al., handling complex litigation and preparing cases for trial, as well as handling significant pro bono cases. Ms. Gross also spent six years as a Staff Attorney working for judges in Alameda County Superior Court.

Ms. Gross graduated from UCLA School of Law and has a home in Elk.
