MS CARMEL ANGELO APPOINTED DIRECTOR OF HHS

Ukiah, California... May 15, 2007

County Executive Officer Al Beltrami announced the appointment of Ms. Carmel Angelo as the new Director of the Mendocino County Health and Human Services Agency.

Ms. Angelo is currently the Assistant Deputy Director of Public Health Services in the San Diego County Health and Human Services Agency, as well as Acting Director of Emergency Medical Services for San Diego County. She will commence her position on 11 June, 2007.

Ms. Angelo will head the combined operations of Public Health, Mental health and Social Services in the Mendocino County HHS, which was formed in 1996. Ms. Ana Mahoney has been the Interim Director since that time and will continue to function as a consultant to Ms. Angelo until July.

“We are fortunate to have a person of Ms. Angelo’s background and experience as our first permanent HHS Director and I look forward to working with her,” said CEO Beltrami.

“Ms. Angelo stood out as a candidate during her hiring interviews,” according to Ms. Mahoney, “and she will bring her experience with a developed HHS in San Diego County to her new position. She will be a real asset to Mendocino County.”
