Board of Supervisors to Meet June 12, 2007 in Fort Bragg

Ukiah, California... May 24, 2007

The Mendocino County Board of Supervisors will hold its regularly scheduled Tuesday meeting at Fort Bragg Town Hall on June 12, 2007. In 2006, Supervisors Kendall Smith and David Colfax asked the Board to prioritize the practice of convening periodic Board meetings outside Ukiah. The goal was to reach out to residents in the larger Mendocino community and encourage their participation in the County governing process.

Last year, the Board met in Point Arena and in Fort Bragg twice. This year, the Board met in Willits in April.

Topics for consideration on the June 12th Board agenda will include presentation of the results of the Central Coast Transfer Station Siting Study, an update on the County budget process, and the dedication of the new Fort Bragg Library.
