■ SUMMARY OF REQUEST: Across the nation, people are recognizing the week of May 15-21, 2016 as Emergency Medical Services (EMS) Week and acknowledging the valuable service provided by EMS responders. EMS responders consist of emergency physicians, nurses, paramedics, emergency medical technicians, firefighters, dispatch centers, law enforcement personnel, educators, administrators, and many others. In recognition of the vital public service provided by responders, we are requesting that the Mendocino County Board of Supervisors proclaim the week of May 15-21, 2016, as Emergency Medical Services Week.

As a focal point for local EMS Week activities, local emergency response agencies will join in recognizing these local heroes at the 4th annual Mendocino County Survivor’s Reunion of patient survivors and their rescuers on May 18, 2016. We would like to invite all Board members to attend the Survivor’s Reunion, and ask that a Board member read the proclamation at this event.
