

ORDINANCE NO. _____

ORDINANCE OF THE MENDOCINO COUNTY BOARD OF SUPERVISORS ADDING CHAPTER 9.42 TO TITLE 9 OF THE MENDOCINO COUNTY CODE ENTITLED
"DISPOSABLE FOOD WARE"

WHEREAS, The County of Mendocino has a duty to protect the natural environment, our economy and the health of its citizens; and

WHEREAS, disposable food and beverage packaging is likely to become litter because it is removed from the place of sale for immediate consumption, and, many takeout food ware items such as cups, hinged containers, plates, and bags are commonly found in roadside litter; and

WHEREAS, the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency has stated that the physical properties of polystyrene foam are such that "the material can have serious impacts on human health, wildlife, the aquatic environment and the economy," and, according to the U.S. Food and Drug Administration, there is medical evidence to suggest that styrene, a primary component of polystyrene foam, leaches from polystyrene foam containers into food and drink; and

WHEREAS, disposable food and beverage packaging made from expanded polystyrene foam (commonly called Styrofoam, a trademark name) is not biodegradable, recyclable for practical purposes, or returnable; and

WHEREAS, polystyrene foam is highly durable and more persistent in the environment than other forms of litter; creates visual blight; and ultimately floats, or is blown, into waterways where it harms living species; and

WHEREAS, the State of California's Ocean Protection Council has urged a prohibition on "single-use products that pose significant ocean litter impacts where a feasible and less damaging alternative is available;" and

WHEREAS, it is not economically feasible to recycle polystyrene foam takeout food ware in Mendocino County and no local recycling programs accept it. Recycling is possible, however, for some disposable food ware made from materials other than polystyrene foam; and

WHEREAS, polystyrene foam is also commonly used as a cushioning material for shipments in boxes and packages, and this material can escape into the environment. Alternative cushioning materials are available and should be used where feasible; and

WHEREAS, biodegradable disposable food packaging for cups, plates, hinge containers, cutlery and straws are made from organic materials such as paper, sugarcane fiber, corn waste and potato starch. These products are readily available in Mendocino County; and

WHEREAS, major takeout food vendors have voluntarily given up the use of polystyrene foam disposable food ware but other retailers continue to use them in the County of Mendocino; and

WHEREAS, the elimination of polystyrene foam disposable food ware and its replacement with biodegradable alternatives would lessen the visual blight and environmental harm from litter in the County of Mendocino.

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of Supervisors ordains as follows:

Section 1. Legislative Findings. The Board of Supervisors hereby finds as follows:

- A. While disposable food ware regulation is a matter of statewide interest and concern that is best applied uniformly throughout the state, in the absence of statewide regulation, it is in the best interests of the County and its residents for the County to regulate disposable food ware as described herein.
- B. The regulation of disposable food ware as proposed herein promotes the general health and welfare of the public by reducing the amount of waste, litter and marine pollution that are attributable to disposable food ware.
- C. The proposed Ordinance is categorically exempt under the California Environmental Quality Act as an activity in protection of the natural resources (Section 21083, Public Resources Code; Reference: Section 21084, Public Resources Code).

Section 2. Chapter 9.42 of Title 9 of the Mendocino County Code is added to read as follows:
