Who should attend?

Anyone willing to work to support local food systems that help the Mendocino County economy and improve health: policymakers; food producers; health advocates; food buyers; food service professionals; business people; parents; nonprofit organizations...and YOU!

At The Food Summit, You Will:

- Learn the history and current work being done to develop our local food system
- Connect with organizations, agencies, businesses, and individuals doing the work
- Develop short and long-term actions to strengthen our local food system

Free! Donations accepted. For more information contact Katherine Fengler at 472-2646 or fenglerk@co.mendocino.ca.us
