The Mendocino County Code requires that before an exception can be granted, it shall be necessary that the Planning Commission make the following findings with respect thereto:

(A) That there are special circumstances or conditions affecting the lands proposed for division, and

(B) That the granting of the exception will not be detrimental to the public welfare or injurious to other property in the territory in which the land proposed for division is situated.

Note: Applicant must justify each exception individually in accordance with (A) and (B) above. Use additional sheet(s) of paper as needed. Submit any documents, exhibits, etc. to support your request. Additional information or exhibits may be deemed necessary by the Department of Planning and Building Services.

I certify that the above statements are correct and that the materials submitted herewith are accurate.
